1 Acres (0.4 Hectares)

Description

The site is majority hard standing and currently used as open storage for vehicles. The existing lease concludes later in 2020 and will be available on new terms to be agreed.

The site is secured by a perimeter fence and close to the main arterial route of the A61 linking Sheffield city centre to the North.

On site the property includes a 2 storey building previously used as a site office. This is included within the site discussion.

The site has further access to a warehouse/industrial unit measuring over 3,000 sq ft. This is available by way of a separate discussion and can be combined with the land.
